GENERAL INFORMATION - FORM NO. OEC-2003-02

For assistance in completing this form or to download a blank statement, visit www.ethics.state.oh.us/fds.html

AM I REQUIRED TO FILE THIS FORM?

You must file this form if you served, at any time in 2003 or 2004, or are a candidate in 2004, for any of these positions:

- State, county, or city elected office
- Municipal school district board of education
- School district board of education or educational service center governing board in a district with a total student count of 12,000 or more
- Public college or university trustee
- Judge or magistrate
- Member, Board of Directors of a Sanitary District, composed in accordance with R.C. 6115.103, that includes two municipal corporations in two counties

You must file a statement reflecting financial information for each year that you served in, or are a candidate for, any of these positions.

CANDIDATES: This is a personal financial disclosure statement that must be filed with the Ohio Ethics Commission before the election, regardless of the amount of money you spend on your campaign and regardless of whether you win the election.

VILLAGE AND TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS: You are exempted from filing this statement, by law.

If you are a non-elected state official or employee (except a college or university trustee) or a school board employee, this is NOT the statement that you are required to file. The correct statement is the OEC-2003-01, which is available on the Ohio Ethics Commission's website.

WHY MUST I FILE?

Filing a statement is required by law. Disclosure is part of the responsibility of holding or seeking a position of public trust. The statement allows you to self-identify the potential for conflicts of interest between your public responsibilities and private pursuits that may require further caution and guidance. Disclosure also offers citizens the awareness of possible conflicts for officials and employees who serve them and reassurance that those possible conflicts are disclosed.

- No person is required to file more than one 2003 statement with the Ohio Ethics Commission.
- By law, a public agency or appointing authority must notify new employees or appointees of the requirement to file a statement.
- You will be required to file a statement in the calendar year after you leave your public position, because the form reflects information for the prior calendar year.

WHAT IS THE FILING DEADLINE?

The filing deadline is THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 2004, UNLESS you are a:

Candidate in 2004	You must file no later than 30 days prior to the earliest election, including any primary election, in which you are a candidate. For example, a candidate in the March 2, 2004 primary election must file by February 2, 2004. A person becomes a candidate when he or she is certified by a board of elections for placement on the ballot of any primary, general, or special election. Prior to certification, an individual is not a candidate. Therefore, an incumbent who has not been certified for placement on a ballot by a board of elections must file a statement by April 15, 2004.
Write-in candidate in 2004	You must file no later than 20 days prior to the earliest election, including any primary election, in which you are a candidate. For example, a write-in candidate in the March 2, 2004 primary election must file by February 11, 2004.
Appointee in 2004 to a vacancy for an unexpired term of elected office	You must file within 15 days after you qualify for office. A person qualifies for office when he or she is sworn in.
Public college or university trustee appointed after February 15, 2004	You must file within 90 days of your appointment date. (If you were appointed between January 1 and February 15, 2004, your deadline is April 15, 2004.)

The Ohio Ethics Commission must receive the statement, or the statement must have a U.S. postmark, by the deadline.

WHAT ARE THE FILING FEES AND PENALTIES?

Each filer must pay a filing fee based on public position. Filing fees are listed on page 10.
Checks should be made payable to "Ohio Ethics Commission." DO NOT SEND CASH.

There are penalties if you do not file your complete, factual statement by the applicable deadline.
Late filing fee: $10 for each day the statement is late ($250 maximum).
Any person who fails to file a statement or who files a false statement may be subject to criminal prosecution.

WHAT QUESTIONS MUST I ANSWER?

You are required to answer all of the questions that are listed next to the position for which you are filing, regardless of whether you are a candidate, an appointee, an employee, or an officeholder. If you omit the answer to any question that you are required to complete, the statement is incomplete under the law and will be returned to you for completion. If you hold more than one public position for which you are required to file a statement, and need assistance in completing the statement, please contact the Ohio Ethics Commission.

WHERE DO I SEND MY COMPLETED FORM?

Most public officials and employees, including most candidates and appointees, file with:

OHIO ETHICS COMMISSION
8 East Long Street, 10th Floor
Columbus, OH 43215-2940
Telephone: (614) 466-7090

Judges, magistrates, and candidates for and appointees to judicial offices, file with:

SUPREME COURT OF OHIO
Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline
65 South Front Street, 5th Floor
Columbus, OH 43215
Telephone: (888) 664-8345

Answer every required question. If the answer to any required question is omitted, the statement is incomplete under the law, and will be returned to you for completion. When you have nothing to list in a given required question, check the box indicating that you have nothing to list. You may be required to list the same information under more than one question. If you need more space to fully answer any question, attach additional sheets, with your name and the applicable question number(s) on each sheet.

1. INCOME: List every source of income, of any amount, that you received in 2003. Following each source of income, briefly describe the services for which the income was received. Remember to list your employment as a source of income. "Income" includes gross income for federal income tax purposes, and interest and dividends on all governmental securities. Income also includes sources of income received by another person for your use or benefit. You are not required to list the sources of income of your spouse, unless the income was received specifically for your use or benefit. You are not required to list the individual items of income to your business or profession except as described below. You are not required to disclose the amount of income you received from a particular source, including income from clients and patients, except in the following situations:

- (1) Income you received from a person or entity that is doing or seeking to do business with the public agency you serve (such as listed in example F below ); or
- (2) Income you received, or shared with a partner in your business or profession, that is attributable to services or goods provided to a client or customer who is a "legislative agent." Please see Revised Code 101.70 for the definition of "legislative agent," or contact the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee (JLEC).

The law provides limited exceptions to the disclosure of the names of clients or patients as required by both of these provisions. Please see Revised Code 102.02 or contact the Ohio Ethics Commission for more information.

2. GIFTS: List each source of gifts of over seventy-five dollars ($75) received by you in your own name or by any other person for your use or benefit in 2003. You are required to list each source of gifts totaling more than $75. If the source of a gift valued at over $75 is a group of persons, you are required to disclose the group as the source of the gift.

EXAMPLE: You are a state or local official, and you received a gift valued at $100 from your staff. You must list the staff as the source of the gift.

EXAMPLE: You received two gifts, each valued at $60, during the year from the same person. You must disclose this person as the source of gifts totaling more than $75.

You are not required to list the nature of the gift. You are not required to list gifts that were received in 2003: (1) By will or by inheritance; (2) By distribution from a trust established by a spouse or ancestor; or (3) From your spouse, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, siblings, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, fathers-in-law, mothers-in-law, or any person to whom you stand in loco parentis.
