Mr. Blutstein,

Below is the information provided in response to your request:

Ms. Galvin was employed as a temporary substitute during the period of September 18, 2002 to April 12, 2004. Actual earning records for employees during this time period are no longer available pursuant to the District's document retention practices.

The remaining documents requested are not available under Alaska's Public Records Act which prohibits the disclosure of records required to be kept confidential by law. AS 40.25.120(a)(1). Alaska law prohibits the release of personnel records, including employment applications. AS 39.25.080. Alaska law similarly prohibits the public release of school personnel evaluations. AS 14.20.149(h); 4 AAC 19.040.

Appeal process, 2 AAC 96.340. Appeal from denial; manner of making

- (a) A requester whose written request for a public record has been denied, in whole or in part, may ask for reconsideration of the denial by submitting a written appeal to the agency head.
- (b) An appeal under (a) of this section must be mailed or hand-delivered to the agency head within 60 working days after the denial is issued and must include the date of the denial and the name and address of the person issuing the denial. The appeal must also identify the records to which access was denied and which are the subject of the appeal. If an appeal is from the failure of the agency to respond to the records request within the appropriate time limit under 2 AAC 96.325, the appeal must so state, must identify the records sought, and must identify the public agency to which the request was directed and the date of the request.
- (c) The 60 working days within which an appeal must be filed begins to run upon the issuance of the denial or, if no denial is issued, upon the expiration of the time period within which the public agency should have responded.
